

Unit 7. Lesson 11

Prepare information and report in English on crime short stories published in mass media

Example:

Title: "The Case of the Missing Heirloom"

Plot Summary: In the sleepy town of Willow Creek, a valuable family heirloom goes missing under mysterious circumstances. The prized possession, a rare diamond necklace, has been passed down through generations and is cherished by the wealthy Sinclair family.

When Lady Amelia Sinclair discovers the necklace missing from its locked display case, she is distraught and calls upon her longtime friend and amateur sleuth, Detective Emily Jones, to solve the case. Emily arrives at the sprawling Sinclair estate and immediately begins her investigation.

As Emily interviews the household staff and family members, she uncovers a web of secrets and betrayals lurking beneath the surface of the seemingly idyllic estate. The butler, Mr. Jenkins, admits to having seen a shadowy figure lurking near the display case on the night of the theft, but he is unable to provide a clear description. Suspicions fall on Lady Amelia's nephew, Jonathan, who has been struggling with gambling debts and is rumored to be in desperate need of money. However, Jonathan vehemently denies any involvement and provides an alibi for the night of the theft. As Emily delves deeper into the case, she uncovers a hidden motive and a shocking betrayal that turns the investigation on its head. With time running out and pressure mounting, Emily must use all of her skills and intuition to crack the case and recover the missing heirloom before it's too late.

In a dramatic climax, Emily confronts the true culprit and uncovers the truth behind the theft of the diamond necklace. The resolution brings closure for the Sinclair family and restores peace to the once-troubled estate.
