

Connectives.

Aim: To use connectives to make interesting sentences.

Connect!

Connectives are words, that are used to connect sentences or to begin a subordinate clause.

These are some examples:

However,      Although,      and,      because

But,      furthermore,      meanwhile,      so,

Watch!

Two simple sentences:

Kile had to go to the shop.

It was dark.

Lets connect!

Kile had to go to the shop      ~~it was dark.~~

Kile had to go to the shop      but      it was dark.

Now it is more interesting!

More efective!

Lets make that sentecnes more effective.

Instead of using but lets use however!

Kile went to the shops, however, it was dark!

Don't forfeit your commas!

Examples!

Lilly was sad because she was lonely.

I was sleeping, although it was a beautiful day!

She got told of, however, she didn't do anything!

Mike was very fast, but he was lazy.

Which one?

Mia was going to the party. She did her homework. finally, if

The dog was hungry. He had lunch. if, even though,

The rat was huge! The mouse that was tiny! unlike, so

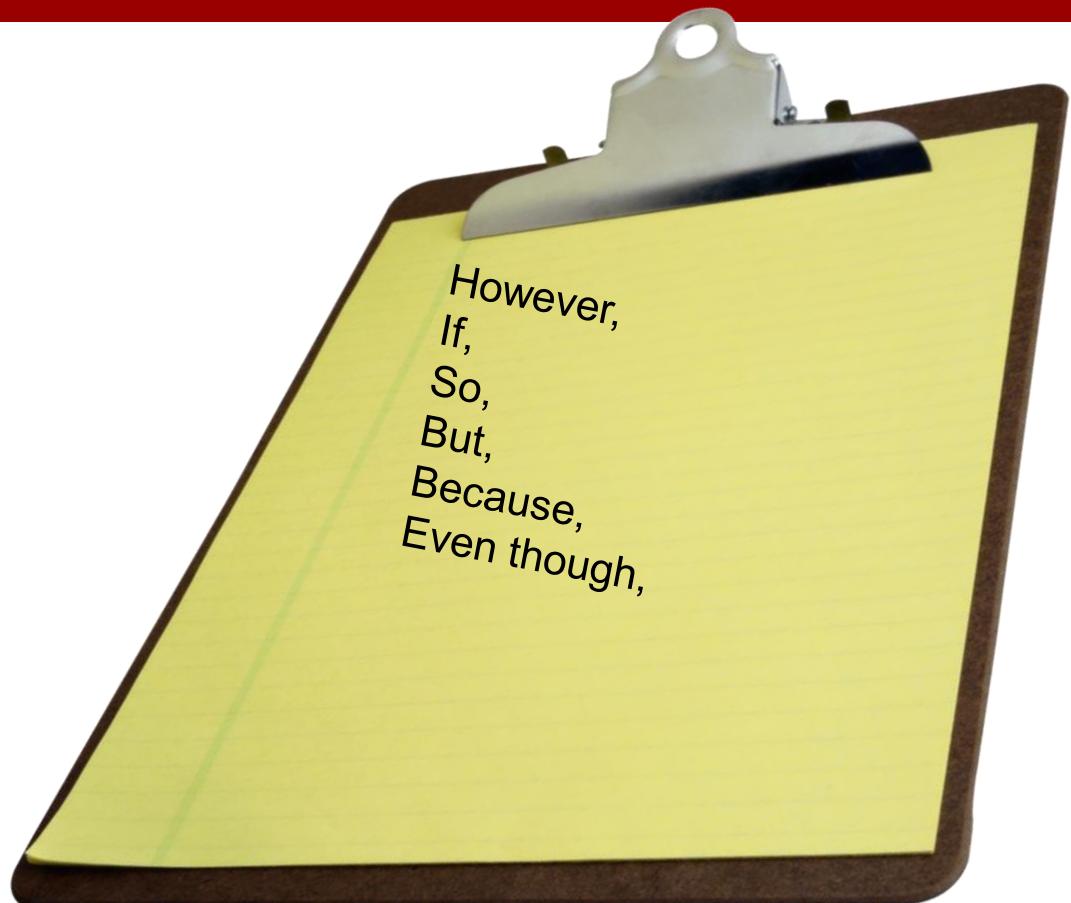

Days went past so quick! I rushed every moment! so, however

David liked ice cream. He did not like cake. because, however

She got a car. She passed her test. because, if

I was playing in the garden. My sister was working hard. meanwhile, if

Make!

Story teller

While

However

Then

